MOST RECENT COMMON ANCESTOR

Roger Mortimer, 3rd Baron Mortimer of Wigmore, 1st Earl of March (25 April 1287 – 29 November 1330), was an English nobleman and powerful marcher lord who gained many estates in the Welsh Marches and Ireland following his advantageous marriage to the wealthy heiress Joan de Geneville, 2nd Baroness Geneville. Her mother was of the royal House of Lusignan. In November 1316, he was appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. He was imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1322 for having led the marcher lords in a revolt against King Edward II in what became known as the Despenser War.
He later escaped to France, where he was joined by Edward's queen consort Isabella, where they had an affair. After he and Isabella led a successful invasion and rebellion, Edward was deposed; Mortimer allegedly arranged his murder at Berkeley Castle. For three years, Mortimer was de facto ruler of England before being himself overthrown by Edward's eldest son, Edward III. Accused of assuming royal power and other crimes, Mortimer was executed by hanging at Tyburn.
Rodrigo Díaz de Vivar El Cid & Leofric, Earl of Mercia and his wife Godgifu, known as Lady Godiva, who lived three centuries earlier, are his ancestors, too.
Polly has six distinct descents from King Edward I, d. 1307 & Charley has three descents by natural children of King John, d. 1216.

I've four distinct descents from my parents most recent common ancestor; three by my mother and once by father.
Arithmetically I'd expect most everyone of English ancestry to be this closely related +/- 100 years; ca. 1230 - 1430.
Certainly not all by Mortimer, but shared ancestors, most probably peasants or tradesman and their wives.
